

America,

we are with you in our dedication to democracy, freedom, and human dignity.

Many of those who perished from the heartless acts of terrorists on September 11, 2001, were our American friends;
some were our fellow Japanese.

We are deeply saddened and angered. We regard the cowardly acts of the terrorists as personal attacks on what we ourselves cherish dearly:
democracy, freedom, peace, and human dignity.

The suddenness of September 11 reminded many Americans of Pearl Harbor.
We have lived with the memory of that Sunday morning for 60 long years.
Today we feel a deepening unity and solidarity with America — we share your pain, sorrow, and anger.

We join in helping the families of victims and urge our community to volunteer in various ways.

We are all with you.
